

Travel with AFLFC to the 13th Havana Biennial

The American Friends of the Ludwig Foundation of Cuba leads unique curated trips to Cuba for individuals, small groups and organizations throughout the year who qualify under the present regulations. These thoughtfully customized tours offer an insider's view of the thriving Cuban arts community. Our partnership with the Ludwig Foundation of Cuba, a uniquely non-governmental organization located in Havana, gives us unparalleled access to Cuba's contemporary art scene.

The 13th Havana Biennial, “The Constructing of the Possible,” is an immersive art experience that turns the city of Havana into a living art gallery, and the first to hold exhibitions outside of Havana. Considered one of Latin America's most significant art events, the city will host over thirty spaces featuring Cuban artists and artists from around the world.

Program Highlights:

- Biennial credentials and VIP access to events
- Executive Level accommodations at Havana's historic Hotel Nacional
- Private studio tours of internationally-recognized and emerging artists
- Guided walk-through of the Museo Nacional de Bellas Artes and architecture tour of Old Havana
- Tour of Finca Vigia, the Hemingway house and museum
- 7-day trip includes a two-day excursion to UNESCO World Heritage Sites Cienfuegos and Trinidad, to visit Biennial events outside of Havana
- Air-conditioned transportation in Cuba, Visa, travel affidavit Authorization Letter/License, health insurance in Cuba, some meals, and airport transfers. Flights not included.
